

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Photo Attached

Artist Row Studios Grand Opening in Carmel

Carmel, Indiana, USA – September 5, 2013

Artist Row Studios will be celebrating their grand opening on Saturday, September 28 and Sunday, September 29, 2013, in conjunction with the Carmel International Arts Festival. Saturday 10 a.m. – 6 p.m. & Sunday 10 a.m. – 5 p.m.

Please join them for these exciting events:

Meet the founding artists ~ see new and diverse work in the gallery
Tour the classroom ~ enjoy special rates on classes and workshops during the opening
Experience jewelry making demonstrations
Enter a drawing for an original piece of handmade jewelry
Meet Michael David Sturlin, internationally known goldsmith ~ studio jewelry artist ~ educator ~ writer ~ consultant ~ and personal guest and mentor. Michael will be returning in April to teach as part of the visiting artist workshops.

Artist Row Studios is an arts and crafts gallery, a venue for professional classes and workshops, and the private working studio of Myra Risley Perrin, Lisa Prado, Susan D. Thompson, and Nancy Martin. Specializing in artisan made jewelry, sculpture, paintings, and ceramics. Located in the industrial chic section of the Carmel Arts & Design District, two blocks south of Main Street, along the east side of the Monon Trail.

254 1st Avenue SW Carmel, IN 46032 (317) 378-9753

Visit www.artistrowstudios.com or

Follow them on Facebook - Artist Row Studios

ENDS