Hoosier Salon Ribbon Cutting and Grand Opening

- What: Ribbon Cutting ceremony for Hoosier Salon, the newest gallery to locate in the Carmel Arts & Design District.
- When: Saturday, May 10 at 5:30 p.m.
- Where: Hoosier Salon, 22 North Range Line Road
Carmel Arts & Design District
- Who: Donnae Dole, Executive Director of the Hoosier Salon and Ron Carter, president of the Carmel City Center Community Development Corporation (4CDC)
- Details: Hoosier Salon's new Carmel Gallery opened May 1 with two different exhibits, "Impressions of Indiana" and "Take it Outside," that will run through June 7. The exhibits feature Hoosier Salon artists Rena Brouwer, Jeff Klinker, Jeanne McLeish, Chris Newlund, Dave Voelpel and Marilyn Witt. "Impressions of Indiana" showcases oil and pastel paintings of scenes from Indiana, while "Take it Outside!" features plein air watercolor paintings. All works are available for purchase.

A reception for the exhibits will coincide with the May Carmel Gallery Walk, Saturday, May 10 from 5 to 10 p.m. with an opportunity to meet the artists, enjoy hors d'oeuvres and music performed by guitarist Mark Voelpel.

Hoosier Salon is a statewide non-profit organization that has promoted Indiana artists and offered their work for sale since 1925. The Carmel gallery is located at 22 N. Range Line Road in the Carmel Arts and Design District and is open from 11 to 6 p.m. Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Sundays, and 11 to 8:30 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays.
